

AMY WALTON

Died 2002

Amy and her husband Bill were members of the St John's Wahroonga Scottish Dance Club and also danced with the Beecroft Club. Though Amy was profoundly deaf and could only lip-read instructions, she loved Scottish Country Dancing – she had a very good sense of rhythm and by watching her partner and other dancers rarely she missed a beat.

Remembered by St John's Wahroonga Scottish Dancers