

Helen Jackson

Helen Jackson teaches Scottish Country Dancing at Presbyterian Church Hall, Cedar Street, Maleny on Mondays, 7-9pm.

She first learnt Scottish Country Dancing with a Toowoomba club while she was teaching primary school there in the early 1960s before she was married. She also danced a little in Scotland in the early 1970s, when they spent 2 years there. It wasn't until she retired from teaching in the 1990s that she started again with the new group formed by Lesley in Maleny. It seemed to all come back to her fairly easily but she certainly benefitted from various Days of Dance and classes run by the Society over the years. She has shared the running of the Maleny Dance group with a number of others over the years.
