

ISA OSLER

Died 2003

Isa took up Scottish Country Dancing after her husband died, helped by friends Maurice Harcombe and Matt McDougall. She enjoyed Morpeth weekends and a Winter School and danced at the Epping Club. After her retirement she joined the St John's Club at Wahroonga, taught by Jack Petie. She was a loyal and active member of the Club, holding positions of President and Secretary.

Remembered by St John's Wahroonga SCD Club
