

Janet Oliver

Janet Oliver teaches the Bundy Scottish Country Dancers, who dance on Tuesdays at the Bundaberg Revival Fellowship Hall, 26 Skyring Street, Bundaberg from 6:30pm to 7pm (Ladies Step) followed by Beginners to 8pm then Intermediate/Advanced to 9pm.

Janet was introduced to dancing by her parents Marjorie and Carl Oliver, over 60 years ago.

She was taught by Bessie Kemp, Teesside, UK (Advanced Teacher RSCDS (Scroll of Honour 1999) in Country, Highland and Step Dancing. Dancing advanced classes and demonstration standard by age 16.

She danced in the UK until moving to Sydney and dancing at various Clubs.

In 1994 moving to Bundaberg meant travelling to Maryborough, 90+ minutes each way to dance, so in 2002 with her parents, Bundy Scottish Country Dancers was formed, having over 150 years of dancing experience to call upon.

Janet believes in teaching correctly, using the RSCDS Manual. She remembers that the 'true spirit of the dance' is what is important, not the performance. Friendship, fun and fitness with plenty of 'controlled abandon' is her motto. Janet's teaching is unique and a experience not to be missed. Come along for one of her classes.
