

John O'Shea

John started dancing at the old Caledonian Hall in Townsville in 1977. He became the teacher in the late 1980s when the then teacher handed him everything and said he was not well enough to continue. He continued teaching in Townsville until April 2000 when he and wife Paula moved to the Sunshine Coast.

John started the Nambour Scottish Country Dancers in September 2000 where he continues to teach.

He has attended several winter schools, ATA (Australian Teachers Alliance) training course in Collaroy, weekend schools and days of dance.
