

Margaret Silke

Margaret Silke has been teaching SCD in Townsville for fifteen years since the SCD teachers moved away fifteen years ago. Having been bitten by the SCD bug, if she wanted to dance she would have to teach! With the support and help of Anne Archdeacon, the Cairns RSCDS teacher, and Alex Roberts, a young dancer from Germany, she started teaching. Margaret has no formal SCD qualifications but a love and passion for SCD and as a trained primary teacher has the fundamentals of teaching. Her first Winter School was in Brisbane in 2001 where she became totally besotted with SCD. Over the years she has danced at Winter Schools in Australia, Summer Schools in NZ and schools and classes in North America. These dancing events have assisted in her teaching. She also did Highland Dancing as a child and young adult. Margaret's brand of teaching is based on the manual but gives room for all people who want to dance to engage, have fun, get fit.physically and mentally, and make friends.
