

Margaret Sim

17 March 1935 – 3 August 2017

Margaret was a very much loved and respected teacher who dedicated much of her life to the advancement of Scottish Country Dancing in the Sydney area.

Margaret obtained her teaching certificate in 1984, was a founding member of the Teachers' Liaison Group, Chairman of the Australian Teachers' Association and Chairman of the Sydney Branch.

In 1973 Margaret opened a dance class at Cheltenham Girls High School, which continued for over 35 years.

In 2007 "The Mentor" dance was devised by Brian Charlton in honour of Margaret. The Sydney Branch Award was presented to Margaret in 2007 and the Society Scroll of Honour in 2013.

Margaret passed away in 2017 after a long illness and will always be appreciated for her great contribution to the TLG and Sydney Branch Inc.

Remembered by the Teachers' Liaison Committee
